

TURKS & CAICOS ISLANDS FINANCIAL SERVICES COMMISSION

Providenciales- 10 April 2014

FSC Chairman awarded Queen's Honour in recognition of expertise in financial services.

The Turks and Caicos Financial Services Commission is pleased to announce that its Chairman, Errol Allen, was awarded the Knight Commander of the Order of St Michael and St George by Queen Elizabeth, Head of Commonwealth.

The Order of St Michael and St George is awarded to men and women who render extraordinary or important non-military service in a foreign country. It can also be conferred for important or loyal service in relation to foreign and Commonwealth affairs.

A Citizen of St. Vincent and the Grenadines, Sir Errol Allen is an economist who spent more than 30 years in the Banking sector. He has held posts such as Deputy Governor of Eastern Caribbean Central Bank, President, Eastern Caribbean Institute of Banking and Financial Services, Director National Commercial Bank (SVG), Director International Financial Services Authority (SVG) Ltd and Special Appointee, International Monetary Fund.

Sir Allen was appointed Chairman of the Turks and Caicos Financial Services Commission in April 2011. The FSC Board of Directors is made up of individuals with extensive expertise in financial services and regulatory matters, both domestically and internationally. The Board is charged with establishing the Commission's policy framework and overseeing its implementation.
