The Turks and Caicos Financial Services Commission is pleased to congratulate fourteen employees on graduating from the Turks and Caicos Islands Community College this year.

The Commission through its study programme helps employees to seek opportunities and gain the knowledge and skills needed to adapt to an ever changing working environment. The program provides professional development opportunities and assist with resources and expertise where needed.

While observing that each of the FSC employees graduating this year had selected Business Communication and Team Building as a main subject for their course at the TCI Community College; Managing Director Kevin Higgins, stressed that: “As we strive to maximize staff effectiveness within the Commission as well as with stakeholders; effectively communicating objectives, understanding the environment and having the know how for building strong and proficient teams are some of the critical skills currently needed by FSC staff.”

He added: “The competencies obtained by the Commission’s employees this year will undoubtedly advance their careers. Their newly gained skills are increasingly valuable in the modern era of financial services where employees often deal with new technologies, legal and regulatory requirements.”

The FSC commends the following employees for graduating in Business Communication & Practice and Team Building: Teka Roberts ; Vanessa Forbes; Velma Smith ; Kristen Brown ; Cheryl Moore ; Diandra Gray ; Asha Lightbourne ; Meoshi Smith ; Odeat Forbes-Excell ; Michell’Lee Williams ; Justin Smith ; Lareesa Robinson ; Cora Williams ; Natasha Been
